Oil you cisterns. The mosquitoes are getting bad.

LIVE and let live should be the motto of every citizen of the Brownsville country.

If you want prospective settlers to know the merits of this section, tell them about it through THE HERALD. Our circulation extends in every direction, and goes out every day.

THE man Turner, who was convicted in San Antonio a few months ago for murdering a defenseless woman and sentenced to hang, has had the verdict of the lower court confirmed.

WITH the many large irrigation plants in operation and in contemplation along the lower Rio Grande it is not difficult to foretell the future. Better come on now and get in on the lower floor.

CRAZY women in San Antonio have been paying visits to Monk Gibson, who is under indictment for the murder of the Condit family, at Edna. Of course Gibson appreciate these delicate attentions.

It is wonderful how many people are right on the spot to claim the credit of a public enterprise, and how little credit the local newspapers receive. Had you ever thought about it?—Bartlett Tribune.

WE are for Brownsville and the Brownsville country first, last and all the time. We are a home institution and that means a great deal. When you have work to be done, give your home paper a chance to at least figure on it.

HONEST incorruptible, and a foe to cheap political tricksters and grafters, the late Jerry Simpson was regarded by some newspapers as a crank and by others as a fool, but the breed of congressmen could be improved considerably by being crossed with a few more of his kind. —Galveston Tribune.

If there was ever a time when the citizens of Brownsville and vicinity should pull together, that time is right now. No great enterprise or corporation ever succeeded by each member having ideas peculiarly his own and each one trying to run things to suit himself. Successful business concerns agree upon a plan of procedure, and every individual interested bends his energies for success. If differences of opinion arise these differences are coolly discussed and settled. One member of a concern may have a plan which he is convinced would advance the business if put into operation. The other members discuss the question, and if they deem it practicable it is given a trial. Towns should be run on business principles same as banks, and when this is done its reflex is seen in a period of general development. If you want a thing ask for it, as one man. It is neither treason nor murder to ask for what you want. If you don't always get it, you at least have the satisfaction of knowing you tried.

On The Wing.

Ah, autumn ways,
Ah, leaves of brown,
That autumn winds
Weave in a crown
To deck the going
Summer time,
The dying summer;
Leafless climb
The glory vines,
And breezes blow
A requiem
For days that go.
The season waits
The chilling breath
And paralyzing
Touch of death;
Supine and still
As birds that sing,
When charmed, await
The serpent's sting.
But, though the winds
Their largesse give
Of dying leaves,
'Tis good to live!
'Tis good to fill
Life's golden cup
With autumn ale
And lift it up!
I quaff, and laugh,
And spur afar;
In joy, where brown tint
Forests are.
If Death would hush
My laugh, my fun,
Then death must catch
Me on the run.

—J. M. Lewis.

"Gracious, Mrs. A., but you have a pretty baby!"

"Yes, Mrs. B., all the neighbors say he is beautiful."

"No wonder; he is just a little sugar ball of sweetness!"

"And the neighbors say that he is the prettiest baby in the neighborhood."

"Er—mine excepted?"

"No exceptions."

"What? Do you mean to say that that homely little brat could compare with my baby when it comes to beauty? Why, the nerve!"

—Chicago News.

"Poor b'y!" exclaimed O'Hara, condoling with Cassidy, who had been injured by a blast; "'tis tough luck teh have your hand 'blowed off."

"Oeh! Faith, it might 'ave been worse," replied Cassidy; "suppose Oi'd had me week's wages in it at the toime."—Birmingham (Eng.) Post.

"Dear me!" exclaimed the man who had been ostentatiously for his train fare, "I've lost my last penny. I'm not as well off as I thought I was."

"No," replied the wise conductor, as he rang the bell to stop, "but you're really better off."

The greatest jar to love in a cottage is the cold, stern fact that stomachs as well as hearts must be satisfied.

Sometimes it is cheaper to spend your money than invest it and lose a lot more on top of it.

The best and rarest moral bracer in the world is the knowledge that some one has faith in you.
